LIFE INSURANCE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Southern Branch, SAVANNAH, Ga.

A. WILBUR, Manager.
R. D. ARNOLD, Consulting Physician.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

$5,000,000.

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$72,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIable Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY, Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

FIRE INSURANCE.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE LONDON LIVERPOOL AND GLOBE INS. CO. WHOSE CAPITAL AMOUNTS TO

I am now prepared to Insure all kinds of

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE BUILINGS, RAILROAD DEPOTS, SHOPS, ROLLING STOCK, BRIDGES AND TRACKS, FACTORIES FOUNDERIES, MILLS AND MERCHANDISE.

IN ANY PART OF NORTH CAROLINA AT EXCEEDING LOW RATES.

I will when desired issue Permanent Policies which insures the property specified forever, unless the assured chooses to cancel his Policy in which event all the premium he has paid will be returned less five per centum.

The loss of a Court House or other Public Building at the present time would be a public calamity, whereas a trifling amount paid for a policy WILL SECURE A SUFFICIENT SUM TO REBUILD SHOULD THE PROPERTY BE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Accumulated Capital, over $10,000 00
Annual Income, 6 000,000
Surplus, above Liabilities, 2,000 000

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid to cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution. Its popularity is a thing unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1869.

AT HIS OLD TRICKS.

The Governor pretended in 1865, after President Johnson made him Provisional Governor, to sell out his paper to his son Joseph. Yet the Governor writes for, and, in a great measure, conducts the paper. The Governor's contributions to the Standard could be plainly marked out by those who knew the Governor's peculiar style of writing. Under the name of his son he turned loose his artillery. He called our best citizens liars, traitors, scoundrels, &c. He even called Dr. Hawkins and Mr. George Mordecai liars, and said they had got their pardons by falsehoods to the President.—He threatened to seize their property, if they did not behave. Yet the good people of Raleigh subscribed for his paper and supported it by advertising in it. He threatened to have the Milton Chronicle suppressed. He drove men out of the field as candidates for the Legislature. We sent him word by the men who came to distribute his paper among the people to whom we were speaking, that if the Governor would come to Orange and seize any man's property, with no more authority than he had for seizing the property of Dr. Hawkins and Mr. Mordecai, the people of Orange would hang him, for they would as soon hang a Governor as a negro when the Governor deserved it, and they had once hung a man, for seizing three dollars, a razor and a hymn book. Having really sold, or pretended to sell, his paper to Littlefield, Hack and Wall Street brokers, as report has it, and established John Neathery as the nominal Editor, (at least we heard of John's saying he was indebted to the Governor for his place,) the Governor still writes for it.

When the legislative address, signed by 88 members of the Legislature came out, and for which John Ragland, of Granville, said they should all be hung with a grape vine untrimmed, we said Judge Reade wrote it, and so he did. A member of the bar said he could swear to his style with as much certainty as he could to his hand writing. Time which proves the truth of all things, proved the truth of the authorship of the infamous address. Sam Barnett, the Commoner from Person, says Judge Reade was the author. And so with the same certainty can we point out articles written by the Governor for Littlefield's paper, the Standard. We might sometimes be mistaken, but so rarely that it would be no injustice to the Governor.

We said in the Sentinel of the 7th, that the presence of carpet-baggers who had marched with Sherman, was an insult to the State. So it is, and we repeat it. Men who laid waste our homes with fire and sword, and now rely alone upon the vote of the ignorant and base to give them political position, are not only a disgrace but a nuisance to all right minded, high toned, honorable men. In the Standard of the 8th, the Governor replied by saying: "We tell you who fought against the Union left us by our fathers, that you, banned as a traitor, should thank the mercy of the government that spared your miserable neck. These men were faithful to their country; they stood by the flag and overthrew the traitors who would have dimmed its glory, &c." This is just the way the Governor talked when he was calling on the people in the better days of the Confederacy to trust in "God and Jeff. Davis." He was constantly talking about "dimming the glory" of the Confederate government. How he cried out in the Standard "beat the drum, blow the fife, unfurl the flag, drill them until their legs are limber. If they wont volunteer, draft them; if they don't draft, conscript them. The hirelings of the North must be driven back. God and the whole country say so."

No wonder the Governor has quit the Church, taken to the grog shops, and gone to "cussing." In every political contest he claimed that the Lord was on his side, yet he has been whipped in all, and in every thing, except his call for the head of old Abe. Whipped in secession; whipped in the war; whipped with President Johnson in reconstruction; whipped with Pilgrim Ashley out of the Court room; whipped with Henderson Adams into the rotunda; whipped in his approval of the purchase of 8,000 acres for the Penitentiary. No wonder his faith in the church is shaken. We think he should pray give us faith, lead us not into temptation and deliver us from the grog shops.

A SPLIT IN THE PARTY.

"Our beloved" Governor went to the Town Hall, and, haranguing the mob, endeavored to incite them to violence against us. He said, that he endorsed all that his son Joe, the Speaker of the House, had said and done, although Joe had gathered a band of conspirators at the depot for the purpose, as we believe, of killing us.

Galloway, the leader of the party, and Grant's elector, said, that the attempt to assassinate us was mean and cowardly.

SPEECH OF MR. POU, OF JOHNSTON.—Our readers will be pleased with the excellent speech which we publish to day. Mr. Pou is a moderate Republican, and is master of a diction that is far superior to that of any Radical in either House. We think all will agree that the style of the speech is unusually good, and every tax payer will be glad to know that there is at least one Republican who does not approve of the enormous salaries voted to the swarm of officers now in the State.

COLORED MAGNANIMITY.

It is quite apparent that the colored members of the Legislature, as a class, are much more magnanimously inclined towards the white men of the State than the carpet-baggers, or, indeed, than most of the scalawags. An appeal to the Legislative proceedings will reveal the fact that, whilst the Radical whites were, for the most part, extremely bitter, arrogant and proscriptive, on the other hand, many of the colored members were courteous and conciliatory, whilst some few were liberal and magnanimous. Sykes, of Pasquotank, and the colored member in the House from New Hanover, gave evidence of a rational and generous spirit towards the whites, that was in striking contrast with the bitter and vindictive animus of nearly all of the Radicals, whether imported or native.

It is to be hoped that when the colored members shall have learned more of the machinations and hollow professions of the carpet-baggers, that more of them will be found voting with the Conservatives on measures that concern the welfare of all North Carolinians, than have hitherto been found. Why should they combine with yankees to oppress and punish their own people? Why should they unite with interlopers and needy adventurers, who care nothing really for the State, but who are for feathering their own nests, to inflict serious detriment upon all classes and conditions of society? We hope for a change in feeling and action?

LINE UPON LINE.

Senator Sprague of Rhode Island seems greatly in earnest. On the 8th inst. he made a fourth speech against the corruptions of the dominant party, of which he is not an insignificant member. Like his other speeches upon the same topics, he was listened to with marked attention, the galleries being densely crowded on the occasion. He exposed the financial blundering and gross corruptions of the party to which he belongs, and "showed up" the low standard of intellectual and moral worth of the present members of the Senate. In the course of his remarks he referred to the defeat of the Federals at Manassas, and asserted that Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside ran away, adding another instance to the thousands on record,

> "That he who fights and runs away,
> May live to fight another day," which he did when Genl. Lee gave him that terrible defeat at Fredericksburg. We hope Senator Sprague will continue in his "labor of love" until rascality and venality are thoroughly routed and driven from our public offices.

NEPOTISM.

For weeks our exchanges have contained a vast number of appointments of the new President, in which list are to be found a small army of relatives and connections of Gen. Grant. Whole families have been appointed to office, and the "cry is, still they come." Grant has rewarded also his three biographers, Badeau, Deming and Richardson, but thus far has neglected Dana, of the New York Sun, who also praised Grant's military exploits hugely. When the first quarter is ended, we hope some industrious editor will collate all the instances of nepotism and publish them in columns. Everybody will then see what an extensive relationship belongs to our President.

CARPET BAGGERS LOOK OUT.

You are doomed—irretrievably doomed. The sentence has gone out against you. So said Colonel Sinclair in our office. He said further, that the Ajax of the party had struck you a blow, and that you would be cut through inevitably.

"Ye who have tears, prepare to shed them now."

Query. As Mr. Ajax has struck the carpet baggers a mighty blow, (sic the Col.,) who will be the man to strike him a blow in turn, and seal his political doom? Don't all answer at once. We think the State will be benefitted "muchly" if some one will pitch into him a la Ajax style, and strike soon, strike hard, and strike often. Who is Mr. Ajax? Is he any relation to Homer's hero? If so, what?

A NOBLE EXAMPLE.

The Duke of Argyll, Secretary of the British Indian Department, has taken a step with reference to one of his sons which we would commend to the attention of Americans, and especially to the gentlemen of the South, burdened with poverty and pride. This noble Duke knowing that there was no very flattering opening in the Civil service of his country for young men, has placed his youngest son in a commercial house engaged in the tea trade.

There is matter for a long leader in this sensible and praise worthy action of the Scottish Duke; or material for a practical discourse in such a text. But we have not time to-day to write the leader or the discourse. We thought such a course of conduct in such a person merited particular mention, because of the good sense manifest in the transaction, and because of its contrast to the action of so many Americans, who proud of lineage and boastful of good connections, would rather be useless appendages of a household, than men of energy and labor, factors in a nation's progress.—We find such judicious and excellent remarks in an exchange, that in lieu of any moralizings of our own, we copy them, thereby giving them our full endorsement.

"Some of our public men really seem to think that the public service is a sort of huge crib especially established for the benefit of their relatives and dependents.—There is also another view. Fathers frequently do their sons a positive injustice in training them up for the over stocked professions for which they are manifestly unsuited, and at which they can seldom obtain a decent living. Many a good tailor and shoemaker has been lost to society in this way. There is a kind of false pride that fills parents with the idea that it is better that their sons should half starve at some of the out of elbow professions than learn a trade that will insure them a competence in any part of the world."

Forney thinks the appointment of Longstreet doesn't "make treason odious." If Forney really wishes to make treason odious, let Forney turn traitor.

Reported for the Sentinel.

SALARIES OF OFFICERS.

The question before the House being the substitute offered by Mr. Pou for the bill reported by the Committee, Mr. Pou said:

It is objected, Mr. Speaker, that the salaries named in the substitute are small, I admit, that they are not large. Salaries ought not to be large.

Civil officers are merely servants or agents employed by the people. Their pay ought to be graduated on the same principles which regulate the pay of employees of private individuals.

A citizen wanting the services of an agent pays, or offers to pay, only so much money as may be necessary to secure the services of a competent person.

So, in fixing salaries of public agents or officers, the will of the people is, that so much only of their money be used, as may be necessary to get honest and competent men.

No set of men are entitled to the emoluments of office, except in consideration of public services by them performed. If all the functions of legislative, executive and judicial officers could be performed by a simple machine—costing the State no more than a town clock, the people would wisely dispense with the General Assembly, the Governor, the Judges and all other officials. The machine would do the work of them all with impartiality and precision; and no sane man would exhibit the arrogance and egotism to demand a salaried office.

True, such a machine is impossible; but it is none the less arrogance and egotism—it is positive injustice and tyranny in any man or set of men to demand large salaries out of the people's earnings, when the duties to be performed can be more cheaply and just as efficiently done by some other man or set men.

Does any one suppose that competent men cannot be secured, to fill the offices mentioned, at the salaries named in the substitute? Let me assure him that none of these offices will be vacated, because of the adoption of the substitute!

Why, then, should we not pass it? The present incumbents have no claim on the toil-stained dollars of the people, except in consideration of the public services, now being done by those incumbents. They can honestly claim no more money for their services, than it would take to buy the services of other men equally honest and competent with themselves.

We ought not to make salaries so high that offices would be desirable for the pay alone. The contest for office when the inducement is pay, invites into the arena, sea fish, venal and unprincipled men. Fraud in politics is then an art. Corruption then becomes a science. Honesty and patriotism are then liable to be overwhelmed at the ballot box by the disciplined mercenaries of corruption.

It is a great mistake to assert that the best men of the country can be induced only by the tempting bait of a fat salary to undertake the public service. The disinterested patriotism of Miltiades and Aristides, the Roman integrity and self-abnegation of Cincinnatus and Fabricius,—as English Hampden and an American Washington,—a half million of volunteers dead in new-made graves around us, scarcely yet turfed over with the green grass, all proclaim how nobly and grandly, some men of every land and clime and faith, will respond with service and even with life to the invocation of their country. Money did not buy them. Love of glory did not lure them. Fidelity to duty was the sublime obligation that bound them to the sacrifice.

Away, then, with the libel that in this day of her poverty and financial distress, North Carolina can find no sons to serve her as civil agents, unless she offers them he gilded inducements of large salaries.

Our people are poor and honest and frugal. Their officers ought to be truly representatives of the people. Besides supporting those officers, we have a heavy debt of interest to pay. The official who would demand such a salary as would enable him to revel in luxury now, while thousands of tax-payers can scarcely provide wholesome food and comfortable clothing for their families, might make a respectable barbarian satrap of a conquered province, but I proclaim him no fit representative of the free people of North Carolina.

I have seen, with pain, the growth of luxurious habits among the American people. I remember that the splendors of Imperial Rome, were only the funeral obsequies of the crude but glorious Republic. Let us take care that we labor not for such a future to American Liberty. Many people imitate the manners and habits of those in authority. Let us vote our officials small salaries and encourage them to set to the people the example of simple and frugal habits. Let us remind them that the dignity of office in a Republic is a myth—a tradition of kingcraft. Let us tell them that they will have the respect and affection of the people, if they faithfully and conscientiously discharge their duties, although their families may dwell in humble cabins and be clad in rude attire. Let us say to them live if you choose in sumptuous mansions—keep your splendid equipages—give your grand balls and parties—feast to the cadence of music and the sparkle of wine—but pay for these luxuries with your own money—not with the hard earnings of those whom God has made your equals—and whom you call on to fast, in order that you may feast.

I rejoice that the newly elected President is committed to rigid economy and retrenchment. If he is wise and sincere in his professions, he will spurn with the contempt of true greatness, that whispered bribe of $100,000 per annum, which seeks to buy him into silent sequiescence and plunder of the national treasury.

Dr. Franklin says there are always selfish parties willing to give the rulers more pay, in order that the rulers may help them to get more pay or plunder. And while the National Republican administration is making economy and retrenchment its watchwords, let the State Republican administration, also catch the inspiration, and show itself worthy the confidence the people.

There is now no aristocracy in North Carolina. There can be but one possible aristocracy ever created, and that would be the aristocracy of office holders. If we vote them small salaries, if we allow them no increase of patronage, if we allow them no opportunity to perpetuate their power in the handling and controlling of large appropriations nominally made for some pretended public benefit, we then will have done all in our power as legislators, to tear down the last refuge that an aristocracy in this State can propose to itself to occupy.

Again, Mr. Speaker, let us make all salaries in this State small, and we do all in our power to avert one of the greatest curses of the day—political gambling and swindleocracy. There are in the land swarms of such gamblers and beggars—non producers—parasites on the industry of the people—drones in the hive of society, men who, having abandoned every plan of making themselves useful in the private business of life, have desperately determined to stake their fortunes on the chance of winning office. Offices that give much pay and large power, are, in the eyes of these men, the great prizes, and those which yield small perquisites are the little prizes of the game. I do not say that all office-holders, or all seekers of office, belong to this rabble. I do not say whether one political party or the other is more largely represented in it. But this I do say that, when we increase the size of the prizes, we multiply the number of the throng, and inflame the violence of their passion for gain. I do not say that salaries may be so reduced, or patronage so circumscribed as entirely to remove the evil; but I do say if the State and National Legislatures have it in their power to disperse the idle crew, they can at least prevent its continuing reinforcement at the expense of the industries of the country.

The prosperity of the country depends on the number of persons productively engaged in the various departments of art, commerce and agriculture. The future of this State must mainly rest on the industry of those who till the soil. We must encourage the ploughman. But if we give large salaries to officers—salaries taxed out of the poorly paid labor of him who follows the plough, we make his weary way more weary still; we persuade him to leave the field untilled and join in the reckless game of office hunting.

Anxious officials may tumorously suggest that they cannot afford to hold office on small salaries; and that when they quit, the public service will suffer for want of competent officers. Dismiss your fears, friends! We do not wish to get rid of you; but if you choose to resign, do so. The State will not miss you. She has many a son now swinging the axe in her forests, or turning the sod in her fields, or striking the anvil in her shops, who needs only opportunity to develop talent fit for the highest offices of the Commonwealth. Opportunity converted the obscure tanner of Galena into General of the American armies, and thus into the chief ruler of the greatest nation in the world. So be not cast down on the State's account! When you leave, some of those obscure men can be found who will gladly accept and worthily fill our places.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I have done. I expect to hear what I have said, designated a speech for "Buncombe." It is a matter of small concern to me what any man says or thinks of my motive in making it. If this House—if the people of this State—will ponder what I have said, my object in making these remarks will have been accomplished. I doubt not the views I have presented seem narrow to some men. Such men never see peculiar virtue in small sums of money. Doubtless there were Jewish officials who were disgusted with the little mindedness of the Galilean, when his attention was arrested and his commendation evoked, by the farthing which the poor widow cast into the treasury.

For the Sentinel.

Ted R. Caldwell, President of the Senate:

The Constitution, Article II, Section 16 provides, that "no law shall be passed to raise money on the credit of the State, or to pledge the faith of the State, for the payment of any debt," * * * unless the bill shall be read three several times in each House of the General Assembly, and passed three several readings on three different days. Again, in the same article, section 25, it is provided that "all bills and resolutions, of a legislative nature, shall be read three times in each House before they pass into laws."

The bill therefore, providing for the payment of the burial expenses of the late Hon. D. S. Rich having failed to pass the Senate on the 24 day of April, and having been passed but twice by that body, is no law, and the endorsement on the back of the bill, that it did pass its 2d reading April 2d is erroneous and false, as the journals show.

I therefore enter this my solemn protest: 1st. Against the said bill being ratified. 2nd. Against the Treasurer paying any money thereunder.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. LOVE.
SENATOR 43d DISTRICT.

IN THE MATTER OF ARCHD McLEAN, (HARNETT) BANKRUPT.

Question certified by W. A. Guthrie, Register.

Is the bankrupt entitled to an exemption of $1000 in real estate and $500 in personal estate, as provided in the Constitution of North Carolina, article X, sections 1 and 2.

J. W. HINSDALE, Attorney for Assignee.
A. D. MCLEAN, Att'y for Bankrupt.

BROOKS JUDGE—

The counsel for the bankrupt contends in effect, that the acceptance by the Congress of the United States of the Constitution of North Carolina, was in effect an amendment of Congress of the bankrupt act of March 21, 1867; and that the amendment thereby made had the effect to extend or to alter the provisions contained in the 14th section of the Bankruptcy acts as to embrace such a Homestead and such provision of personal property, as is provided for in said Constitution in addition to the $500 in value allowed to be exempted by said section.

I am well satisfied that no amendment of the bankrupt law was contemplated by Congress in the act of acceptance referred to. And I am as well satisfied that that act had not the effect contended for.

I have decided this question in the case of Thos. C. Dodson, certified from the 5th District, in which I filed an opinion which was published in the Journal of Commerce, of Newbern, of 26th October, 1868. I see no reason for changing the views expressed in that opinion.

It is not necessary that I should determine the question presented by the counsel for the assignee, in regard to the retrospective character of the provision in the N. C. Constitution, as I think it is quite clear that the Bankrupt is not entitled in any view of the case to the homestead or the personal property claimed by him.

Let this be certified to Wm. A. Guthrie, Register.

THE NAVIGATION OF THE ROANOKE.—We learn positively that the 'Silver Wave,' which has been for six months plying between this point and Hill's Ferry, will be withdrawn for repairs about the first of May, and will remain off some couple of months. A smaller boat, however, is to take its place during the time, preventing the closing up of the line during the summer months.—Roanoke News.

LATEST NEWS.

MADRID, April 9—Evening.—Much political excitement exists in the city, and apprehensions are entertained that the exasperation of party feeling will result in an outbreak of violence. The police and military authorities are taking every precaution to prevent disorder.

The appointment of General Caballero de Roda to the Captain Generalship of Cuba has not been finally determined upon by the provisional government; but, should General de Roda be retained in his command in this country, Don Izquierdo will probably succeed Captain General Dulce.

Additional supplies of artillery and cavalry are demanded for the suppression of the rebellion in Cuba.

HAVANA, April 9. Francisco Leon and Augustine Medina were shot to day in the presence of a vast crowd of spectators. They both maintained their composure and firmness to the last. Leon, in mounting the scaffold, shouted "Viva Independencia!" There was great excitement among the spectators. Some parties uttered seditious cries, and the volunteers, who guarded the scaffold, faced about, and fired about twenty shots into the crowd with disastrous effect. Six men were killed, and many wounded.

Heavy rains have fallen during the present week throughout the island.

STEAMER BURST—FIVE LIVES LOST—Norfolk, Va., April 10.—The propeller Tuanes, from New York for Galveston, was burned yesterday off Hatteras. The cook, three waiters a seaman, and a cold passer, are supposed to be lost. The rest are saved.

ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL LAW IN TEXAS.—Galveston, Texas, April 10.—Henry Cotton, convicted as an accessory to the murder of Major J. B. Lochman in January last, was to-day sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary. He was convicted of murder in the second degree. An appeal will be taken in his as well as Leroy Cotton's case.

CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—When Mr. Delmar was director of the Bureau of Statistics he originated a plan for taking the census through the assessors of internal revenue.—The census for 1865, under that arrangement, is completed as far as it is likely to be. Where there are no returns from assessors the deficiencies have been supplied by estimates. The present Deputy Special Commissioner of Customs has stopped the work, not seeming to attach much importance to it, and is in no way responsible for the results.

The recapitulation of the population of the United States and territories for the year 1868, as made up through the means above stated, is as follows:

White population of the States, 33 291,081; colored, 4,639,862—total 37,9 0,903. The total, with the population of the District of Columbia and the Territories, is 38,422,995. The reported population of California includes Indians and Chinese; Maine includes 500 Indians; Michigan includes about 4,000 Indians; Minesota includes 8,000 Indians; Oregon includes 7,270 Indians and 2,436 Chinese; and Rhode Island also includes a few Indians. The reported and estimated population includes 90,000 Indians and Chinese.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEN OF THE SENATE—THEIR PERSONALE, &c.

IT HAS EVER BEEN HELD AS A SAFE, AS well as a prudent course, not to write, or promulgate a sensitive upon men, until after their death—and, until the adjournment of the Legislature—the death of the General Assembly—could I venture to speak of its members—their personal appearance, style of dress, and apparent fitness for the high trust confided to them by the people of the State. My sketches shall be brief, and my commencing point, the higher House, or Senate.

On entering the Senate Chamber, and looking to the northeast corner, the visitor seldom failed to find occupying the seat once filled by the late Lewis Thompson, of Bertie, a tall, well proportioned man, with dark complexion, clean shaved face black hair and restless eyes, and dressed in a suit of brown homespun. The Senator represent d his people for the fourth time, we think, in 1862, as I was then known as a Whig—he is now identified with the Republican party, but, cannot, we opine, be set down as a Radical, if we accept the interpretation given to this word by the sane men who are the recognized leaders in this state.

The subject of our present sketch, not unfrequently "speaks" on the various subjects brought before the Senate. His style of address is in a word, impromptu; and its aim seems to be to make a point, and stick to it—and his ready arguments, together with its earnestness in delivery, never failed to gain the attention of the senate, and draw forth replies from those who differed from his position. Jealous of his own rights on the floor, he evinced a care for the interest of the people, and time and again seemed startled when contemplating extravagant appropriations, or a departure from the safe and economical paths of former years. Nevertheless he is not an old fogy, but a friend to the developement of the resources of the State by a liberal and safe system of Internal Improvements—a friend to education, and an advocate, therefore, of a system of Common schools.

In the debate on the location of the Penitentiary we were struck with what some seemed to think "the peculiar vehemence" of opposition to a state Penitentiary. Yet, the arguments used by him were unanswerable, and coincided with our own opinion form d twenty years ago, that a Penitentiary never reformed a villain, or brought good out of evil.

Of his fitness for the position which he holds, as a Senator, we are favorably impressed. To sum up, he has proven himself in debate equal to the emergency—quick of thought, and clear in his conclusions; pure in his motives as the appointed hour—a working committeeman; and jealous of the rights of his constituents—and with this brief out line, without endorsing his politics, we pass over, as a faithful representative, A. J. JONES of the county of Columbus—though but a short time in the Senate, has made a favorable impression; and we predict, in this connection that, with the meeting of the next Legislature, the political aspect of the State will have undergone a decided, and a wholesome change, commencing in the section of country from which Mr. Jones hails.

READ WHAT THE

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

SYNOPSIS OF STATEMENT FOR 1868, OF THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Income from Premiums,	$7 161,304 11
Income from Interest,	1,384,305 48
Total Income for the year,	8,740,209 59
Losses paid,	1 231,135 00
Dividends paid,	928,284 00
Total Losses paid to date,	8,090,883 00
Total Dividends paid to date,	2,197,2 8 00

It will be seen from the above that the INCOME FROM INTEREST ALONE greatly exceeds the losses, and that the TOTAL INCOME FOR ONE YEAR is more than the TOTAL LOSSES PAID TO DATE.

The ASSETS of the Company are now over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, and with its IMMENSE INCOME offers greater inducements to those insuring than any other Company in the country. In addition to the peculiar system of premiums with dividends annually payable after four years, it issues Policies upon a reduced all-cash premium, with immediate ANNUAL DIVIDENDS. It can be plainly seen that the Connecticut Mutual Life has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make grand promises of what they INTEND doing, but will insure persons on any plan most desirable, and it makes all its policies non-forfeitable, for a stated amount, after two or three payments. Also remember, this Company has $154 Assets securely invested, for every $100 of its Liabilities.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1869.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

The present proprietor of the Sentinel for over four months has been supplying the old subscribers with their papers without pay, as his contract with Mr. Pell required. To do this however has caused a large outlay. He appeals, therefore, to the friends of the Sentinel to go to work at once and get up at every postoffice in the State a club of subscribers for the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly. Any one who will procure for us a club of TEN SUBSCRIBERS and the money for the same, will receive a copy free. Price of the Daily $10 for one year; $5 for six months. Semi-Weekly one year $5; six months $2.50. Weekly one year $3; six months $1.50.

ESQUIRE MATON alluded to yesterday was committed for assault, but owing to the heavy costs, the imprisonment was remitted. He only stayed in jail some two hours. But there is a "bee gum" matter still about which we would be glad to learn more. The Squire is an appointee of "our beloved" Governor, and we take an interest in his case. Can the Standard throw any light on the "bee-gum?" †

A FINE SODA FOUNTAIN.—Messrs. Bradley & Christophers, opp site the Post Office, have just put up one of the finest Arctic Soda Fountains we have ever seen, and we can testify that the soda they make is delightfully refreshing—cool, sparkling and luscious. †

THE 198TH PRESBYTERY OF ORANGE will meet in the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The sessions will be opened with a sermon by the Rev. F. H. Johnston, of Lexington, in the absence of the late Moderator, Prof. Charles Phillips, D. D. The ordinary sessions will be held daily, to which the public are invited. Divine service may be expected every evening at 8 o'clock. On Sunday, the pulpits of the Baptist and Methodist Churches will be occupied by members of the Presbytery. There are 40 members of Orange Presbytery and there are three other Presbyteries in North Carolina, viz: Concord, Fayetteville and Wilmington.

We would call special attention to the notice of the meeting of the Educational Convention, to be held at the Pittsboro' Scientific Academy, on the 30th inst. The assembling of the Convention is in pursuance of a call made by the Trustees of Ruffin Badger Institute. There is nothing more important now than education. There should be a general waking up of the people on this important matter, and there is no better means than the formation of County Educational Associations. We had them before the war, but we believe that they and the Agricultural Societies nearly all died with the Confederacy. This should not be so. We hope all the good people of Chatham will give the movement their hearty support, and, especially, the teachers and educated men.

We learn that addresses will be delivered before the Convention by Rev. A J. Emerson, of Mt. Vernon High School, Rev. B York, of Ruffin Badger Institute, and Mr. — Tomlinson, of the Friend's Normal School near Snow Camp. To enjoy the hospitality of the good people of Chatham, we should like to attend ourself.

THE LEONARD SCOTT PUBLISHING COMPANY.—We acknowledge ourself greatly indebted to this Company for The Edinburg and London Quarterly Reviews, for January, and for Blackwood for March. The contents of all three are especially appetizing. Nearly all of the articles are of great interest, and many of them are written with consummate vigor and excellence. The articles in the Quarterlies show unmistakably that these old and sterling publications are as fresh, thoughtful, discriminating, philosophical and eloquent after a sixty years existence, as they have been at any period of their brilliant career. Maga—the old familiar Blackwood of Edinboro'—is as piquant, witty, sparkling, incisive, and critical as it was "in days lang syne," when rollicking Kit North dashed off his unique and charming Noctes or his beautiful stories of Scottish life, and other wits and poets whose memories will remain, we trust, always green, adorned its pages with their most fascinating contributions. The energy, spirit and power of these periodicals are really wonderful. The marvel is, that thoughtful people will remain content with the lackadaisical twaddle of American magazines when they can so readily procure the best thoughts of the best English essayists.

As we remarked the other day, the tendency among our publishers is to cater for crude and morbid tastes rather than for those that are well-regulated and healthful, and hence the country is fairly flooded by a torrent of the sickly sentimental or by publications that are utterly stupid and inane. The Leonard Scott Publishing Company are public benefactors, and deserve the thanks of every considerate mind for their enterprise in continuing to lay before the American public the noblest contributions of the foremost British thinkers and authors. The price of each is $4, or the four Reviews (the Westminster and North British with those mentioned) for 12—or all (Blackwood included) for $15. Address the Company at 140 Fulton Street, New York. †

DEAD HEADS.

We shall be from our post most of the present week, at Person Court, for the purpose of extending the circulation of our paper. We have 8,000 dead heads, in other words we issue the paper to that number, who have already paid to our predecessor, Mr. Pell, and our engagement with him requires us to furnish the paper to his subscribers. This was done at a cost of near three hundred dollars a week, until we reduced the wages of every man connected with the Sentinel, and now our receipts are not sufficient to meet the current expenses of the office. We make this candid statement, that our friends may give us their aid in the circulation of the Sentinel. We find that personal application must be made to many persons to induce them to take a paper. Each one of our old subscribers can give us a new one with very little exertion on their part.

NORTHERN FEELING.

New York is central—the focal point—and how does New York feel towards "the friend and brother I" Read the following. One Powell, "down-Easter" and Radical wants lodgings for a "colored" lady and son—both "rich and intelligent." He applies to the leading hotels and receives the subjoined answers:

"St. Nicholas.—"Never had such an application before. The parties had better make a personal application."

Metropolitan.—"Very sorry, but could not possibly do so. Would lose all our guests, most likely, if we did."

Astor House.—"Impossible."

Fifth Avenue.—"Will give an answer another time."

Hoffman House.—"Will send an answer."

Everett House.—"Proprietor in Massachusetts. Will send an answer when he returns, on Saturday."

St. James.—Sent letter declining.

Brevoort House.—Sent letter declining.

Westminster.—"Not possible. "Would have every guest leave if we did."

Clarendon.—"Impossible to make any promises, as we are very full about this time. Besides, our guests are generally such as stay with us some time every year, and not like other hotels, come and go irregularly."

This is "heavy," as no doubt Mr. Powell thought. What a shame to thus treat our "cullud" citizens. Greeley ought to revolt and Sumner ought to "introduce a resolution" instanter. †

TITLES.—A new feature of the "advanced civilization" is the abundant titles that have been bestowed. The hands, wide awake to their own interests and importance sometimes refer to each other as "Honorable" so and so. By way of courtesy, the Speakers of the House and Senate have often referred to as "Honorables," but we have never known before plain Representatives to be thus dubbed. But after all, it sounds largely. Why not say "Hon." Cuffee Mayo, or "Hon." Bill Cawthorn, as well as "Hon." Windy Billy—or indeed other "Honorables" that might be mentioned? †

GOOD PAY.—On Sabbath last SEVEN DOLLARS were paid for work that ought to have been done by the Enrolling Clerk at some other time. "Retrenchment and Reform."

VEGETABLES.—The authorities of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad will start their special freight train for vegetables on Monday afternoon. Their enterprise will not be too soon for the shippers. We visited the truck farm of a friend on yesterday, and he will be prepared to make a very large shipment of radishes by the first train, and will follow by daily shipments during the week. This crop is very fine and ready for transportation. There are three or four acres of radishes and the yield will be enormous, and the quality of the vegetable such as to command the very highest price.—Wil. Jour.

Mr. T. McMillan, of Elizabethtown, well known in this section, has purchased a set of instruments and presented them to the young men of Elizabethtown, who have formed a brass band.

We hear that the tyros amuse themselves by blowing twenty-three and one half hours out of the twenty-four, and the other thirty minutes are devoted to "resting the tired instruments."

Have perseverance, boys, for our best wishes are with you.—Wil. Star.

THE REGISTER'S WORK FOR MARCH.—The County Register for Halifax, for the month of March, issued thirty six marriage licenses, nine white and twenty-seven colored. Forty-six deeds were registered and nine Constitutional exemptions.—Roanoke News.

THE BALLOON VOYAGE ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

Mons. A. Chevalier, the distinguished aeronaut, who lately arrived in this city for the purpose of making a balloon voyage hence to Europe, has leased Landmann's Park, Sixty seventh street and Third avenue, where he will make several ascents during the next two months, prior to his final departure on his great transatlantic voyage, which will be on the 31st of July. More than one hundred applications have been received by M. Chevalier from persons desirous to accompany him on his perilous trip. The price fixed for the passage is $250, and not all those who offer themselves at that price will be accepted by the Professor as compagnons du voyage, as he wishes to take with him only such persons as are capable, through mental and physical qualifications, of assisting him in his scientific observations, for the sake of which, chiefly, the daring project is undertaken.—N. Y. Tribune.

KEEP YOUR RECEIPTS.

The Knoxville Press and Herald says that one of the most telling points of Mr. Johnson's speech was made when, as the evidence of his loyalty, he produced the following document:

Received, Nashville, March 24th, 1864, of Andrew Johnson, Military Governor of Tennessee, fifteen hundred dollars, to aid in the establishment of a Union Press at Knoxville, Tennessee, and to defray my expenses while passing from under secession oppression to the city of Nashville.

$1,500. WM. G. BROWNLOW.

For a time he withheld the signature while he dwelt upon the intrinsic proof the paper afforded of his own loyalty. But when in response to repeated inquiries he read the name of Wm. G. Brownlow as the maker of the receipt, a tumult of cheers and laughter arose.

STATE NEWS.

A writer in the Wilmington Journal excoriates sharply the Brignoli Concert. He says there is a lady in that city who can and does sing every week better than Mlle. Durand. He "damns" with very "faint praise" the "greatest Lyric tenor living"—Brignoli himself. The editor of the Journal says that although "the strictures of the writer are severe, he no doubt reflects the feeling and opinion of a large portion of the audience."

PERSONAL.—Senator Sprague's family, and Miss Chase, daughter of Chief Justice Chase, were the guests of the Purcell House on Friday night. They were en route for Aiken, South Carolina.—Wil. Jour.

The Wilmington Journal confesses to disappointment at the Brignoli Opera—has heard better.

PRISONERS IN JAIL.—The number of prisoners now in jail is eighty, and we suppose the list will continue to increase until the next Superior Court.—Wilmington Star.

Forty true bills of indictment have so far been found by the Grand Jury of the Special Court, and we learn that little, if any, more business is expected to be done by the jury. Wil. Star.

CHICKEN FIGHT.—We learn that a big chicken fight is in contemplation, to come off at this place some time in May, in which both Virginia and North Carolina will figure.—Roanoke News.

Mary Harris, the colored woman who a few days ago made the murderous assault on Sarah Stokey colored, has been released on bail. The bond required was $50, and the security was Wm. Phinney, the night janitor at City Hall.—Wil. Star.

GOING INTO THE FRUIT BUSINESS.—We are pleased to see that not a few of the good people of this section have commenced appreciating the advantages which this clime and soil affords to fruit growing. We have been assured that both are admirably adapted to the purpose, and the facilities for reaching the best markets are unsurpassed.—Roanoke News.

CONVICTS FROM ROBESON.—Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Howell, of Robeson county, arrived in our city with four convicts in charge for confinement and labor in our County Workhouse. They are to be received and worked under the new arrangement effected between the counties, whereby Robeson pays 40 cents per day for the keeping of each convict and bears all expenses of transportation.—Wil. Jour.

A FEROCIOUS LOOKING DOG.—A large ferocious looking she-dog, a cross between the bloodhound and the wolf, was brought to our city for Mr. C. Ganzer, from New York on the Rebecca Clyde late yesterday afternoon. This dog is originally from Alaska, it is said, and has but one puppy of the first litter. She stands fully three feet high and is a dangerous looking brute. We would states, however, for the information of "weak-kneed Republicans" that the animal is intended for no Ku Klux purposes.—Wil. Jour.

The Spring Term of the Superior Court for Union county commenced last week—Judge Buxton presiding. We learn that two negroes were convicted of attempted rape on a white girl of 11 years, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten years.—The negro, John Ghent, who waylaid and beat Mr. Simpson Davis some time ago, was convicted and sentenced to the Penitentiary for two years and six months.

We learn that Judge Buxton does not permit the stay law to obstruct trial in cases of new debts. Cases where old debts are at issue are postponed.—Western Democrat.

The Atlanta delegation leave homeward tonight. The Augusta delegation left yesterday. These delegations with other Conservative Georgians present have the credit here of defeating Butler's Georgia bill.

Chief Justice Chase delivered the opinion of the Supreme Court in the Texas bond case, holding that the annexation of Texas made it a State of the Union, that no act of the citizens and the government of Texas alone has or could dissolve that relation. The ordinance of secession and all Legislative acts in aid of the Rebellion were void; that the Legislature was an illegal body; that the United States bonds in controversy were the property of Texas at the time of secession, and that the law of Texas which required their transfer, was illegal. Therefore, the State of Texas has a right to recover the bonds and perpetuate the injunction and it is decreed accordingly. The Court holds that Congress had a right to adopt reconstruction measures.

Justice Grier dissented as to the merits and jurisdiction of the case, holding that Texas was not in fact a state in the Union. Justices Swayne and Miller dissented as to jurisdiction only.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfect remedy in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which renders it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Bourbon, Whiskey, &c.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of unheard-of virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poisons is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and subtle tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and tions, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These fatal maims the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to the consumptions. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Lubon's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes and Ears, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is an efficient remedy, and its unparalleled. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effects of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Bumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the Ague districts are literally beyond account, and we believe with it is a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the trade of dealers in, and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, of they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of $1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issues but its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued:

Amount insured,	3,582 policies.
Total Premiums,	$10,605,526.00
	350,117.63

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 932
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 691
" New England Mutual, 342
" Phœnix Mutual, 333
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year, 1,260
And in its 23th year, 2,842
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, combines the most universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any House, and its low Price of the smallest pieces is within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophic principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing as perfect, from one minute to the one-hundred. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not rub them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleaning a family full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt, WITHOUT LABOR OR FRICTION.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany it by numerous testimonials with numerous names of signers, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BRO'S and see its wonderful operations.

We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in this State.
